

Additional Information

For meeting attendees bringing guests or staying a bit longer in Vancouver, here are some links to activities, tours and restaurants.

Vancouver Tourism

<https://www.tourismvancouver.com>

<https://www.vancouverattractions.com>

These websites give a great overview of things you can do when visiting Vancouver.

British Columbia Tourism

<https://www.hellobc.com>

Plan your trip around the most beautiful province in Canada.

Whister

<https://www.whistlerblackcomb.com/>

The best ski resort in North America and a favourite summer get-a-way for Vancouverites is a one-and-a-half hour drive North (on the highway where all the car commercials are filmed).

Harbour Air

<https://www.harbourair.com/>

One of the largest seaplane fleets in the world offers tours around British Columbia.

Hiking

<https://www.vancouvertrails.com/>

Some of the most beautiful hiking trails in Canada are minutes away.

Walking

<https://vancouver.ca/parks-recreation-culture/stanley-park.aspx>

Walk around Stanley Park, the largest park inside a city in North America.

Grouse Mountain Gondola

<https://www.grousemountain.com>

Some of the best views over the city and a chance to hike in the mountains above Vancouver.

Boat Tours around Vancouver Harbour

<https://www.boatcruises.com>

<https://www.electricharbourtours.com>

Several companies offer tours of the Vancouver harbour. They leave from downtown about 20 minutes from the meeting campus.

Food

<https://foodietours.ca/>

With more restaurants per capita than NYC, Vancouver offers something for everyone. Take a local tour or dine at a Michelin starred restaurant.

Whale Watching

<https://vancouverwhalewatch.com/>

View some of our aquatic residents. There are many companies that offer this local adventure.

Seattle and Portland are our close neighbours

Vancouver is closer geographically and culturally to Seattle and Portland than to any other major Canadian city. It is a short drive to our Southern neighbours.

Victoria and Butchart Gardens

<https://www.butchartgardens.com/>

One of Canada's most beautiful gardens is a ferry ride away.
